NHSBCA NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

November 2016

NHSBCA President - Nalin Sood - Washington

President Nalin Sood has indicated that the “Points of Pride” section of the website is up and running. With this section member states have a timeframe to post what is happening with their state association and with basketball in their individual states. Wisconsin was the first state to go (read their postings on nhsbca.org). Washington’s “Points of Pride” should be up very soon with Texas and then Pennsylvania the next states in line.

Nalin has also been working with Baron Rings. Info will be sent soon from Baron to state leaders. He is also working with Baron on the “Court of Honor” Awards for next summer.

Scorebook Live info is being monitored by President Sood and other members of the NHSBCA Executive Board. Some state associations are requiring the mandatory use of paper copies of scorebooks in every game. The NFHS has no requirement of paper scorebooks in its by-laws. Information will be shared with our membership as we receive it.

Senior Director of Operations and NABC Board Member - Dave Archer – New York

Dave Archer and Greg Grantham (a former president of the NHSBCA and current NHSBCA Executive Board Member) received great responses to the surveys sent out to state coaching association leaders. These reports will be submitted to state leaders after Thanksgiving and will be used to help the “Guide to Fairness and Treatment” document.

He is also working to reconnect communication lines with the AAU. The NHSBCA in past years has worked with the AAU, but the lines of communication haven’t been as productive as desired. Dave is hopeful of getting someone from the AAU to our summer meetings in Indianapolis.

Steve Witty has finalized plans with the Crowne Plaza in Indianapolis. The NHSBCA will be sharing dates, links, prices, and deadlines soon with state leaders.
